To all BOOKSELLERS.

Having of late, as most of you know, Purchased the Books, that for several years have been Printed at the Theater at Oxford, and being willing and sincerely desirous that you, as well as myself, might receive a benefit by the undertaking, I now to you solely expose to Sale some of every sort, with the Additions of some Numbers of others, Printed at my own Charge, and others, of which I had some few Copies by me, upon the Terms and Conditions following.

I. That the Books mentioned in the following Catalogue shall be exposed to Sale by Two, Four, or Six, not less than Two of one and the same Book at a time, nor more than Six, unless any person desires it, and the whole Company consents to it; and this the rather is here inserted, that no one shall be discouraged, by reason of great Numbers exposed at a time.

II. That he that bids most is the buyer, and if any manifest difference do arise, that then the same Books shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again, and the highest Bidder to have the same.

III. That the Catalogues are gratis given, and purposely disposed of for the use and benefit of the Booksellers; that they may every one be farther informed as to the Editions of the Books, and may by the help of that, in case of their absence, depute any to buy for them.

IV. That the Money for the Books so bought is to be paid in manner following. He that buys under the sum of Five Pounds, pays his ready Money at the delivery of the Books, Viz. within one Month after the Sale is ended. He that buys betwixt five Pounds and ten Pounds, hath three Months from the day the Auction is ended. He that buys betwixt ten Pounds and twenty Pounds, hath two three Months. And he that buys betwixt twenty Pounds and thirty Pounds, hath allowed him three three Months. He that buys betwixt thirty Pounds and forty Pounds, hath four three Months. And he that buys betwixt forty Pounds and fifty Pounds, hath five three Months. And he that buys betwixt fifty Pounds and sixty Pounds, is allowed six three Months. And he that exceeds any of these Sums, hath only the allowance of six three Months, the sum so obliged to pay, being to be paid at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-yard at even and equal payments, and Security to be given for its true discharge, if required of the party so buying, according to the true intent of these Proposals.

V. That this Auction will begin in Petty-Canons-Hall, at the North side of St. Paul's Church-yard, in St. Paul's Alley, the 24th day of February next, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, and Two in the Afternoon, and will continue daily till all the Books be sold. Wherefore it is desired that all Booksellers, or those deputed by them, be there precisely at the Hours afore-mentioned.

VI. The Books are sold as perfect, but if before delivery they be found otherwise, they shall be made perfect, (otherwise if they cannot be perfected) the buyer or buyers shall be at liberty to take or leave them.

Yours,

MOSES PITT.
